International Investment Bank and Eurasian Development Bank expand cooperation

October 30, 2012

The Chairman of the Board of the IIB Nikolay Kosov and Chairman of the Board of the EABR Igor Finovenov have conducted negotiations in Moscow. During the talks the parties discussed the realization of the Memorandum of cooperation between IIB and EABR, signed earlier this year; they also agreed to foster closer cooperation in the financial markets and developed a strategy directed at strengthening the economic relations between the member states of the two banks.

The heads of the IIB and the EABR also discussed the project aimed at creating a joint direct investment fund, the system of projects selection and retention of new participants. The Fund's goals will include implementing the projects in the EABR and the IIB member states which facilitate the mutual integration of the national economies.
