Nikolay Kosov was Appointed the Head of the IIB

September 17, 2012

Nikolay Kosov took office as Head of the Board of the International Investment Bank on September, 17, 2012. Nikolay Kosov was nominated to this position by the Russian Federation and its proposal was approved by all the member states of the Bank. The Council of the International Investment Bank unanimously voted to appoint Nikolay Kosov the new Chairman of the Board.

Nikolay Kosov was introduced to his new staff in the International Investment Bank by Sergey Storchak, the Head of the Russian Delegation to the IIB Council and the Deputy Minister of Finance of the Russian Federation. Mr Storchak read out a welcome letter on behalf of the First Deputy Prime Minister Igor Shuvalov. Representatives of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs also were present at the event. Sergey Storchak expressed his gratitude to Vasiliy Kirpichev, who had previously held the office, for his fruitful and efficient work aimed at stabilising the Bank's position in the market as well as fostering potential for its future development.

Nikolay Kosov took office at the IIB in its most significant period. In June the Council approved the Development Strategy for 2013–2017. The document sets about the Bank's transformation into a multilateral development bank aimed at increasing its operations, significance to the member states and efficiency.

Nikolay Kosov's work experience with Russia's leading financial and investment organisations and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs as well as his popularity and reputation in financial circles both in Russia and abroad will bring about the IIB's further development and facilitate the successful implementation of its strategic goals.
