The IIB Board of Governors summarized the Bank's results in 2025

December 29, 2025

On December 17-18, 2025, meetings of the International Investment Bank's highest governing bodies — the Board of Directors and the Board of Governors — held on Phu Quoc Island, (the Socialist Republic of Vietnam). The jubilee tenth meeting of the Board of Governors, which brought together representatives of member states in the year of the IIB's 55th anniversary, also marked the first “off-site” review of the Bank's performance after the change of its seat, took place in Vietnam over the past 10 years.

The IIB’s management reported on the results of implementing measures aimed at further stabilizing the Bank's operations and strengthening its operational framework. Thus, in 2025, despite well-known external constraints, IIB completed the optimization of its corporate governance system, responsibly fulfilled its obligations to investors in available jurisdictions, continued balancing its financial indicators, and, most importantly, began the gradual restoration of its core operations in accessible currencies.

IIB shareholders welcomed the institution's performance in the outgoing year and its strategic course for the near future, confirming their readiness to support measures for its further financial recovery and protection of interests for the benefit of all member states.
