

Ricardo Cabrisas received IIB Board member

The Cuban Vice President of the Council of Ministers and the Minister of Economy and Planning received the Deputy Chairman of the IIB Board this Tuesday.

Author: Redacción Digital| internet@granma.cu
October 31, 2017

This Tuesday Ricardo Cabrisas, the Vice President of the Council of Ministers and the Minister of Economy and Planning of Cuba received Mr. Denis Ivanov, the Deputy Chairman of the IIB Board.

During the meeting, the parties discussed the excellent state of relations between Cuba and the International Investment Bank, a multilateral development institution, which Cuba had joined in 1974 as a full-fledged member, as well as the perspectives of future cooperation.

They have also reviewed the Bank's draft strategy for Cuba for the period of 2018-2022, which will be approved at the next meeting of the Bank's Council, which will take place in Bratislava in December.

Cabrisas and Ivanov agreed on the role the Bank can play in the 2030 Economic and Social Development Programme of Cuba, especially in financing the Programme's strategic and priority projects.

Mr. Denis Rodionov, the Head of IIB's Customer Relations Department, accompanied the distinguished guest.

Isaac Hernández Pérez, the director of the Central Bank of Cuba, and Marlene Díaz and Pedro Ravelo (Banco Exterior de Cuba) represented the Cuban side. (ACN).